Ammoniated Soluble Superphosphate | Ammoniated Soluble Superphosphate

THE STAR AMMONIATED SOLUBLE SUPER PHOSPHATE, having gained on its own merits, the greatest reputation of any Fertilizer ever sold in the United States,—Other manufacturers, are using the trade mark of the "STAR," for their articles, much inferior in quality, and that cost 100 per cent. less, in order to make money for themselves, regardless of the interest of the poor farmer. The manufacturers of the original "STAR," with ourselves have determined, in order to prevent the great impositions, now being practiced in some parts of the United States, and to save the name of that formerly known as the "STAR" to change the trade mark to L. & R. with the above cut, which has been duly patented. Next Season each sack will contain precisely the same Fertilizer as we sold last season, but will be stamped with the new trade mark. and the words will be printed on the back of each sack with the analysis. We refer to all farmers who have used the STAR as to the reputation and value of the article as a Fertilizer.

FORMERLY THE STAR AMMONIATED

SOLUBLE

☞ THE SUBSCRIPTION LIST OF THE DAILY NEWS IS LARGER THAN THAT OF ANY OTHER DAILY IN THE STATE, AND MORE THAN DOUBLE THAT OF ANY OTHER DAILY IN RALEIGH. ADVERTISERS WILL MAKE A NOTE OF THIS.

WEATHER REPORT.

For the South Atlantic States, falling, followed by rising barometer, increasing northwest winds, slightly cooler, clear weather will prevail, and possibly a storm centre develope some distance to the eastward.

——Church notices to-day.

——Night services will be resumed at the Free Church of the Good Shepherd, to-morrow night, beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

——Fifty bales of new cotton and twenty-six barrels of rosin, were shipped over the North Carolina Railroad yesterday, from this point.

——The circus will be in this morning, and will give two performances to day—one at about 1, P. M., and the other about 7:30, P .M.

——Mr. Simon Hayes gave a barbecue at his place near the city, yesterday, at which quite a number of his friends from the city were present by special request.

——A drunken man in the gallery interrupted the performance at Tucker Hall, for a few moments. The police took him out, notwithstanding his struggles.

——The Raleigh & Gaston Railroad will run its regular Tuesday Centennial excursion on Tuesday next; but at rates reduced from $18.75 to $15.00 for the round trip.

——A protracted meeting is in progress at the Presbyterian Church in Henderson, and an anxious crowd of seekers after divine truth throng the sacred edifice every night.

——From all accounts the old Star Phosphate has given great satisfaction among the farmers of this section during the past year. A. C. Sanders & Co. are, as formerly, the agents.

——Robinson's circus will be at Sanford next Tuesday, the 19th. A special train will run to that place on that day from the head of the road, and another to Sanford from Lockville.

——Further appointments of Governor Vance and Judge Settle are published this morning. They have been agreed upon by the chairmen of the Democratic and Republican State Committees.

——Henry Horton, colored, of Wake Forest Township, was committed to jail, yesterday, for bastardy, in three cases in default of bail in [illegible] by Justice Fleming, of Rolesville.

——The journals of the Canadian Legislature for 1875, were received at the State Library, yesterday, in exchange for the journals of the Legislature of this State, the same being the result of recent correspondence.

——The young man from Johnston county who was thrown from his horse near the residence of Mr. W. H. Hicks, on the Holleman road, four miles from this city, and had his arm broken, was named Lassiter.

——A great many of the young partridges in the fields about the city, are being killed by sportsmen. The bird law prohibits this, and besides, it is very wrong to slay these fledglings. It ought by all means to be stopped, and we appeal to the sportsmen to desist.

——The Salisbury Examiner says that ex-Sheriff Sowers, of Davidson, who was reported to have been murdered on the highway some nights ago, was in Salisbury last Monday and stoutly denied the soft impeachment. He ought to know, and we accept this as final.

——Persons desiring to go with the Sunday School Centennial excursion, can secure tickets by applying Monday or Tuesday to any member of the excursion committee, or to Mr. J. C. R. Little, the depot agent, and producing a certificate from the committee on arrangements.

——Citizens living on Hillsboro street, remote from the Capitol, complain that the ordinance relative to cisterns has never been enforced in their section of the city. They are too far from the Capitol cistern to receive any protection from it, and feel that at present they are without protection from fire.

For the Fair.

Messrs. Julius Lewis & Co., will erect on the Fair Grounds, in time for the Fair, one of Halladay's Patent Wind-Mills, such as that which has been in successful operation by Bishop Lyman for 12 months past. They will also dig, at their own expense, a well on the Fair Grounds, to the end that the natives may not suffer for water, as they have done in the past. This wind mill will be one of the most attractive things on exhibition.

Leg Broken.

Mr. Wm. Thornton, a highly respectable farmer, living at Elevation, Johnston county, came into this city, yesterday, and sold his cotton. After doing his trading, he started home, when, at Walnut Creek, his horse ran away and threw him, doing him serious injury. His right leg was broken just above the knee, and he was otherwise injured.

The Work on the Western North Carolina Railroad.

Maj. W. W. Rollins, the President of the Western North Carolina Railroad, was in the city, yesterday, and gives a gratifying report of the progress of the work on that line. He says that the two small tunnels—Lick Log and Burgin's—will be finished through in two months, while in the big Swannanoa Tunnel, the work is going along favorably. After getting fairly into this tunnel, a strata of soft, seamy rock was found, which caved in greatly, thus delaying work very considerably at the beginning, and necessitating the use of timbers to hold it up as the work progressed; but this has been passed, the use of the timbers is no longer needed, and the hands are going ahead without any impediment. It is hoped that this tunnel will be completed through by the first of April next. A force will begin on the western approach in a very short time, and the whole length of the tunnel, when it is completed, will be about 1,875 feet. The road is graded beyond the tunnel to within about 7 miles of Asheville, and after the tunneling is through, a very short time will elapse until the road is completed to Asheville.

All in all, the outlook for the early completion of the road is favorable. Maj. Rollins reports that the convicts are doing splendidly, and that their work is as good as that of hired hands. He hopes, with the approval of the Governor, to put a force at work on the Tennessee side of the road, in the course of a month, and bring it up from the west as speedily as possible.

It will be a good day for North Carolina when that road is finished through to the Tennessee line. It may be added that Maj. Rollins says the receipts of the already finished part of the road were very satisfactory during the past season, and that the road bed is in very excellent condition.

Death of Capt. Samuel T. Williams.

It pains us greatly to announce the death of Capt. Samuel T. Williams, of Nash. Telegraphic information has been received that he expired in New York City at 8 o'clock Thursday evening. There is not in North Carolina a man in the walks of private life, the announcement of whose death would carry more universal sorrow with it, for the circle of Capt. Williams' acquaintance was wide, and all who knew him loved him. While he resided in Raleigh, as editor of the News, he entwined himself closely in the [illegible] ple here, and it is here that the news of his death will be heard with especial regret. In all of his conduct, he was a singularly pure man; genial, talented, gentle as a woman, a gentleman sans peur et sans reproche, it is not wonderful that he was a general favorite. But we forbear making an extended notice of the demise of this most estimable gentleman; an editorial article upon the sad event will appear in to-morrow's paper.

Haverly's Minstrels

Played last night at Tucker Hall to a very excellent house, and no one had his expectations so high that they were disappointed. From first to last the exhibition was tip-top. The songs with which the entertainment was introduced, were splendid, while the sayings and cross-fires sparkled with humor, and the antics brought down the house. The songs and dancing of Primrose and West were especially attractive; French, with his banjo, was entire master of the situation, and George Wilson's laughing song took like wild fire; Barlow, with his negro specialties, touched every heart, and the clog dancing was the best we ever saw. The farces were quite good, and indeed no part of the performance was indifferent. Haverly's Minstrels improve continually, and if their performances in the past admitted of an improvement, an improvement has been made. It is the best minstrel company on the road. Those who fail to see it miss no small amount of fun. We cordially commend it to the people of whatever place it may visit.

Quick Transportation.

Twelve cars loaded with cotton, a portion of which was purchased on Thursday, left this city that afternoon at 3:25, by the North Carolina Line. This cotton left Morehead City yesterday, at 11 A. M., aboard the Clyde steamer "Benefactor," and will arrive in New York to-morrow at 11 A. M. This is quick time, and the mention of this matter will suggest to shippers an examination of the rates and time of this line, among others. Thirteen car loads of general merchandise was received here Wednesday by the North Carolina Line.

Postponement of Johnston Court.

J. H. Abell, Esq., Clerk of the Superior Court of Johnston county, writes asking us to announce that there will be no Court in that county on the first week of the term, Judge Watts having postponed it until the second week.

Digests of Decisions of the Supreme Court, Summer Term, 1876.

A freeholder is one who owns land in fee, or for life, or for some intermediate period. As there are legal and equitable estates, so there are legal and equitable freeholds. A mortgagor in possession is a freeholder, within the meaning of the act relating to talis jurors. Rev. Code, chap. 31, sec. 29. (Bat. Rev. p. 860.) State v. Ragland.

The provision in the Code, allowing as a cause of demurer, that there is another action pending between the parties for the same cause, must be confined to the Courts of this State, where the remedies are precisely the same; the object being to protect parties from vexation, and the Courts from multiplicity of suits. But in different States or governments, the remedies are not the same, and there may be reasons why our Courts should not take notice of proceedings outside of the State, which would not be applicable to our own Courts. The entries of a merchant's clerk are not evidence against third persons. They are not under oath, and not subject to cross examination. Sloan v. McDowell.

A married woman is entitled to alimony pendente lite from her husband's estate, when the income of her separate estate is not sufficient for her support, and to defray the necessary and proper expenses in prosecuting her suit. She need not resort to the corpus or capital of her separate estate, before calling upon that of her husband's.

A borrowed of B a sum of money for the purpose of paying for a lot, the title to which was made to A and his wife. In an action against A for the money borrowed: HELD, that the money so borrowed was no lien on the lot so purchased, and that A was entitled to his homestead in the same. Brodie v. Batchelder.

In an action by an executor against the widow of his testator, an ignorant woman, to recover certain articles which had been assigned to her as her year's support, before she had dissented from her husband's will, which she did not do within the time prescribed by law, on account of the advice of the executor: IT WAS HELD that the charge of the Judge below, "that if the executor, through fraud and deception, induced the widow not to dissent from the will of her husband within the time required by law, the proceedings assigning her year's support were binding on him," was correct; and the jury having found that fact in the widow's favor, the executor could not recover in this action.

An executor is not bound to give the widow of his testator, any advice as to her action at all. If, however, he consents to become her adviser and assumes such position of trust and confidence, he is bound that the advice given, should not only be honest, in the sense that it was not knowingly and wilfully false, but, also, that it should be correct and true, as far as by any reasonable efforts on his part, he could ascertain the truth. Bolin, exec'r, v. Barker.

Franklin Court.

In Franklin Court, on yesterday, Jo. Alston, Henderson Alston and Albert Jones, all colored, were convicted of larceny under such circumstances that they were each sentenced to two years in the Penitentiary. J. A. Puryear, white, was acquitted of larceny—malicious prosecution—and a motion was made by the Solicitor that the prosecutor pay the cost. A good many new bills have been found. The forgeries in county orders are being investigated, and bills will be found against several parties. The trial of Hillman Morgan for the murder of John Crudup, will be continued, and Court will probably adjourn to-day.

Sent to the Work House.

Providence Buncombe, colored, was sent to the work house, yesterday, for four weeks, to work out a fine. Before the last election Providence marched up to the registration books, very drunk, to have his name registered. He was feeling quite important, and instead of the plain Providence, he gave in his name as P. A. Buncombe. When the election came, he forgot about this, and having shrunk to his proper level, denied that his name was P. A. Buncombe. The books showed no Providence Buncombe, and so. Just on account of the mere matter of one spree, he lost his privilege as an American citizen.

FOWLE AND RUSSELL AT WILKESBORO.

RUSSELL SET BACK AGAIN.

[From our own Correspondent.]

WILKESBORO, Sept. 11, 1876.

Hon. D. G. Fowle and Judge Russell met here to-day. The candidates were introduced by Col. W. H. H. Cowles, from a beautiful stand erected on the Court House green. Hon. D. G. Fowle opened the debate in the strongest arguments, and when he finished, three hearty cheers were given for Fowle and the Union.

Russell made a very lame attempt at speaking, and the crowd, which numbered about 800, dwindled to less than 75 before he had been speaking ten minutes. He tried to bring up all the war and revive sectional hatred; put all the war on Vance and abused him unmercifully; tried to cover up the Jones deputy affair by abusing the poor paupers and giving them bad characters. Said the civil rights question was dead and out of the campaign. He did not like to talk about it.

After speaking for two hours, he retired, and Judge Fowle again came forward. Just as soon as he took the stand, the immense crowd returned, and listened to one of the most pointed and logical replies ever heard. Russell was completely riddled. Cheer after cheer went up as Fowle was speaking, but not a word or single demonstration whatever for Russell Judge Fowle has done a good work in Wilkes. Six white men who have heretofore acted with the Radical party, came out publicly and renounced it, and pledged themselves for Tilden and Vance as soon as the speaking closed. There were many more convicts, and the people of old Wilkes are sure that they will throw off the Radical yoke in November and elect all their candidates by at least 200 or 300 majority. Judge Fowle is a power in the land. Everybody says there never was such an orator in this county before, and never was there such deep and lasting impressions made on the people.

While here, Judge Fowle and your correspondent were the guests of that sterling and energetic Democrat, Col. W. H. H. Cowles, who is doing a good work among these people.

N. S.

Personal.

Prof. W. H. Neave, of Salisbury, the finest musician in the State, was in the city, yesterday. He has been instructing the band at Louisburg, [illegible] on his way home.

the Western North Carolina Railroad, and Pinkney Rollins, Esq., editor of the Asheville Pioneer, were in the city, yesterday.

L. C. Jones, Esq., President of the Fayetteville Railroad, is registered at the Yarborough House.

J. M. Pool, Esq., Auditor of the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, is at the Rockbridge Alum Springs, in Virginia, where he is rapidly regaining his health.

Mr. Chas. Hay, who has been ill for so long, was able to go home, yesterday afternoon.

The Prospects in the West.

Information is received from the most trust-worthy source, that Gov. Vance will carry the Eighth Congressional District by an increase of at least 2,000 upon the Merrimon vote, and the gentleman giving the information says these figures will not admit of a change for the worse. This will elect Gov. Vance, provided Judge Settle holds only the vote of Gov. Caldwell, (and it is not likely that he will do this well,) and the Democratic ticket will thus come across the mountains with a majority of 200 to play upon.

Gens. Ransom and Cox at Hillsboro.

Gen. M. W. Ransom and Gen. W. R. Cox, will address the people of Orange, at Hillsboro, to-day. Gen. Ransom arrived in this city yesterday afternoon on the Raleigh & Gaston train, and the two gentlemen left together, yesterday afternoon, on the 5:05 train for Hillsboro. A large crowd will no doubt greet them to-day.

The Lack of Spirits at the Fair.

That regulation of the Executive Committee of the State Agricultural Society, prohibiting the sale of liquor on the grounds during Fair week will materially lessen the receipts of the association. The old rum-suckers would pay more to get out than to get in, and the man who establishes a rum mill just outside the enclosure will draw better than the pumpkins and the turnips.

Flag Raising.

The Tilden-Vance Club, of Henderson, will hoist a flag next Monday, when Hon. Matt. W. Ransom, Hon. J. J. Davis, Fab. H. Busbee, Esq, and others, will be present, and address the club and the vast assemblage which is expected to be present. The pole is more than 100 feet high.

Pardoned by Death.

On Thursday morning, Moses Roger (we think this is the name), of Person county, arrived in the city bearing a petition to the Governor praying the pardon from the Penitentiary of his son, sentenced for seven years, but who had served about four months only. The mother of the young man and the sisters and brothers of the erring one had bade the husband and father adieu, not with that pain attending separation; but the smile that lightened up the face of the busy housewife and the clapping of hands by the little ones, at the thought that the son and brother would soon be among the family again, caused Moses Roger to leave his home for a time with hope and expectation upon tip-toe.

We recollect having read somewhere an account of a court scene, in which it appeared that when a case, long on the docket, was called, the attorney of the defendant arose and responded that "the accused had been nol pros'd by death."

The sorrow-stricken father learned upon his arrival in this city that his boy had been buried a week last Tuesday. The Governor would have favorably considered his petition, no doubt; but the King of Terrors, who lays the shepherd's hook beside the sceptre, and who out-ranks earthly rulers, had exercised his clemency, and the boy was free!

Cotton Movements Last Week.

The receipts of cotton in this city, for the week ending yesterday, were 804 bales, of which nearly all was new cotton; receipts for the same week last year, 835 bales; decrease for week this year, 31 bales. The market, yesterday evening, closed dull and at a decline, having fallen from 10½ to 10⅜.

The receipts thus far have been quite as heavy as could have been expected, considering the price; picking is progressing uninterruptedly, and the yield will be all that was expected four weeks ago.

Comes Out for His Successor.

John Hyman, the colored Congressman from the Second District, has issued a circular, which we saw yesterday, dated Washington, September 9th, denying the report which has gained currency, to the effect that he will not support Gov. Brogden for Congress, but will run as an independent candidate. John comes out and does the square thing by saying that there ain't any personal pique in him on account of his defeat, and that he will give His Excellency his cordial support. Thus, "peace reigns in Warsaw."

OFFICE OF THE RALEIGH NEWS,
Raleigh, N. C., Sept. 14, 1876.

Rev. T. H. Pritchard, D. D., Chairman, &c., Raleigh, N. C.:

REV. AND DEAR SIR:—The Raleigh NEWS, ever alive to the interests of our people, desires to present, through you, to the Centennial excursion party, which leaves here on Tuesday next, one hundred copies of the "International Exhibition Guide, by a Southern Editor," published by Capt. R. T. Fulghum, of this city. I am sure the guide book will prove a valuable auxiliary to an intelligent and satisfactory visit to the great Centennial Exhibition and the city of Philadelphia.

Wishing you all a pleasant trip and a safe return home,

Yours very truly,
GEO. C. JORDAN, Manager.

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 14, 1876.

Mr. Geo. C. Jordan:

DEAR SIR:—In the name of the Sunday School excursionists, who will leave Raleigh for the Centennial, on the 19th inst., it gives me pleasure to gratefully acknowledge the generous and timely kindness of the Raleigh NEWS. It shall be my business to see that all are supplied with this excellent Guide, whose value I have learnd by experience.

Very truly yours,
T. H. PRITCHARD.

Always keep on hand, as delay increases suffering. If you feel sickness coming upon you, take a dose of Dr. Bull's Vegetable Pills. They can do you no harm, and may save you from the sick room. Price 25 cents.

A CARD.—To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a recipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the REV. JOS. T. INMAN, Station D, Bible House, New York City. ap 16-D&W6m

A REMEDY THAT DEFIES COMPETITION.—Hostetter's Stomach Bitters defy competition. Of the host of rival tonics that have cropped up during its long career, not one has gained and retained such a large share of public favor, though many have enjoyed an ephemeral popularity. The reason is this, that whereas many of these medicines were advertised to perform cures of the most startling nature, they have when tested, almost invariably turned out to be of little or no value, while the great invigorant, whose reputation they were intended to rival, has never disappointed those who have placed their confidence in it. It has vindicated in the amplest manner its claims to be considered a positive specific remedy for liver complaint, dyspepsia, malarious fevers debility, constipation, and numerous other maladies, arising from general weakness and disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels.

From Edward Jennings, M. D., Surgeon City Hospital Halifax: "Voden's Liebig's Liquid Extract of Beef and Tonic Invigorator is a very agreeable article of diet. In Dyptheria, Fevers, and every depressing disease, its use will be found invaluable."

Our subscribers will greatly oblige us by giving prompt information of any delay in receiving their papers.

THE slander against Tilden about his income returns, will be successfully refuted. But what can Hayes say about his returns?

GOV. TILDEN'S defence against the charge of perjury will appear in a few days. It will completely vindicate him in the matter. A statement from the New York Herald, which we publish in another column, foreshadows his line of defence.

THE delay of the South Carolina Republicans in making a nomination for Governor, is almost unprecedented in the history of nominating Conventions. It indicates that the war of factions is unusually severe, and bodes good for the cause of Reform. "When thieves fall out"—you know the rest.

JUDGE SETTLE concluded his argument at Brevard, by striking S. D. Pool, Gov. Tilden, and Pendleton. If the Judge was in earnest in his denunciation of official malfeasance, or if he had the manliness to speak out against the corruptionists in his own party, he would begin his harangue with some allusion to Grant, Belknap, and Howerton.

CARL SCHURZ, in his great speech at Charlotte, in 1872, wanted to know if the office-holders under Grant's administration could call their souls their own. They are slaves. They dare not open their lips against the corruptions or the oppressions of the government. Rollins, of Buncombe, lifted his voice in favor of Bristow, the quondam reformer, and straightway his official head tumbled into the basket.

CARL SCHURZ.

Carl Schurz has been stumping Ohio and Indiana for the Republicans. Four years ago no one arraigned that party for its failings and its crimes with more eloquence, power and effect than he. We print this morning a few extracts from an address delivered by him in Charlotte during his canvass for Horace Greeley. The language is in striking contrast to that which is heard from his lips in this campaign, and convicts him of the grossest inconsistency, to say the least of his somersault from one camp to the other.

In 1872, he said the Republican party were "the allies and abettors of the robbers who stripped the South naked;" charged them with being forgetful of "the high principles" of that party; and rebuked them for attempting to perpetuate "the prejudices and hatreds engendered by the war"—just what Chandler, Morton, Harrison, Kilpatrick, Ingersoll, and others of Schurz's confederates are now attempting to do—just what he is "engaged" to do himself.

The "great Liberal" has taken still a new departure. It is now said that Secretary Chandler has cancelled the engagement of Carl Schurz with the National Republican Committee for campaign speeches. One of the alleged reasons is the statement by Schurz that Hayes, if elected, would have nothing to do with Chandler, Morton and others of like political tastes and habits. Another, is the charge that Schurz has written letters to members of his family and intimate friends asserting that the Democracy will carry Ohio and Indiana. And still another, is the fact that in his speeches he has assailed President Grant's administration, making a reform in the civil service a basis of those assaults.

This is a good indication for our cause in Indiana and Ohio. The latter State, especially, is controlled by the German vote—at least, the Germans hold the balance of power. If it be true, as Schurz states, that this great element of the population in the west is arrayed against Hayes and Wheeler, the success of the Democrats in Indiana is assured, and we need not despair even of Ohio.

THE NEW YORK DEMOCRACY.

Lucius Robinson, whom the Democrats have nominated for Governor, is the present Comptroller of the State. He was elected in October, 1875. His opponents were Spinner, Republican, and Hopkins, Temperance candidate. The plurality for Robinson was 13,549.

Mr. Robinson was a democrat before the war, of the free soil school, with John Van Buren, and others After the war broke out he became a war Democrat and was a very decisive Union man, without at all abandoning his Democratic principles. When nominated by the Republicans for a State office he did not write a letter of acceptance or commit himself in any way to any other Republican principle except to that of the preservation of the Union and the crushing out of secession. At the close of his term of office he was taken up by the Democrats and elected, and the party ever since, recognizing that the war is over.

He has been a strong supporter of Tilden's State policy. He is a sound, true man; of powerful influence, and unopposed by any faction. He was Tilden's choice. That goes a long way with us; for we have unbounded confidence in Tilden's judgment, and forecast in political matters. He sees far and clear. We may rest assured that Robinson is "the strongest man;" and that the Saratoga blunder will have no permanent ill effect against our party. Our chances for carrying the Empire State are about the same as before the Saratoga Convention met.

RAILWAY ACCIDENTS.

The accident on the Richmond & Danville Railroad Tuesday morning, seems to have been caused by a broken rail. There is no evidence that it was the result of negligence on the part of the Company or its officials. There are several classes of accidents upon railroads. There are collisions, boiler explosions, broken connecting rods, spreading of rails, cattle on track, misplaced switches, broken axles, broken bridges, wash-out, broken wheel, broken rail, and others. Of these, collisions, spreading of rails, misplaced switches, broken bridges, and wash-outs, are generally the result of negligence.

The other classes of accidents can not well be guarded against, especially such as are caused by broken rails. It is impossible for railway officials to detect those flaws in rails which escape the scrutiny of the manufacturers. This class of accidents happen upon the finest and the best managed roads.

In this particular case, the accident occurred notwithstanding the fact that track-walkers, fifty-five in number, are regularly employed all along the line of the Richmond & Danville Railroad Company to examine the track carefully every day.

Negligence on the part of railway officials, by which the lives of travelers are imperilled, deserves the severest reprobation—indeed, it is tantamount to crime, and is unpardonable. But they are not culpable for accidents which it is impossible in the nature of things for them to guard against. This is a distinction, which, in justice to railroad officers, should always be borne in mind by the public.

DR. NEREUS MENDENHALL, we regret to say, has declined the nomination to the Legislature, tendered him by the Conservative Convention of Guilford. He has accepted an appointment as Professor in the Penn Institute, of Pennsylvania, and has left to fill that position. He published a letter in the Greensboro Patriot, which conveys his parting words of warning, to the friends whom he leaves behind him. He says the political issues were "never more important." "It also appears to me," he says, "that in the coming presidential election, questions far deeper and more vital—reaching to the very foundation and safety of the U. S. Government—the question whether any State rights are to be preserved or whether we merge into a vast centralized despotism is also awaiting decision. Few are the steps yet to be taken between the recent manifesto of Secretary Taft, and a complete annihilation of the State Governments." This is the warning from a true patriot—one whose integrity and honesty of purpose are unimpeachable.

THE attack of the black Radicals upon the colored Democrats in Durham was shameful. The offenders deserve the severest penalties of the law. It is another evidence of the intolerant spirit among the negroes against men of their own race who choose to vote with the Democrats. We are sorry to see it. We did think that the black people of this State were learning some sense about political matters; and would not commit such folly as this. We warn them against a repetition of such acts of violence. The white men will not stand quietly by and see negroes beaten, who, tired of following unprincipled white Radicals, desire to co-operate with the good men of the country in the cause of honest government.

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

J. J. Reynolds, the colored candidate for the Legislature from Northampton, died on Monday last.

Von Moltke—who is 77—is declining in health. He caught a severe cold lately which has turned to influenza.

Mr. Charles Francis Adams, it is said, is as persistent in work as was ever his father or grandfather. Though he has a carriage, he seldom rides, and always walks five miles or more ever day, winter and summer.

Poor Carlotta has been kept out of the newspapers for a long time, though she is still living. Her insanity is incurable, and when she breaks away from her imprisonment a physician goes and strews flowers in her path, so that she follows the strewn blossoms, she is easily drawn back to the chateau which is her asylum. If ever the French people should incline to recall the Bonapartes, may they think of the fate of poor Carlotta.

It having been stated that a portrait of General Robert E. Lee had been virtually ignored at the Centennial by being placed in one of the foreign departments, Director General Goshorn writes to the Georgia Commissioner: "The picture opening of the exhibition, and after the date fixed for the reception of articles but with special regard to the subject and the section of country whence it came an exception was made, and it was admitted and given a conspicuous place in one of the rooms in the American department in the Memorial Building."

CAMPAIGN NOTES.

There is not a white Radical in Franklin township, Rowan county.

The Democrats of Charlotte are preparing for a grand demonstration on the 19th inst.

Hickory Press: Col. G. N. Folk, Senatorial candidate from Lenoir, made an able and comprehensive political speech at Newton one day last week.

Randolph Regulator: The citizens of Franklinsville and Cedar Falls met at the Academy at Franklinsville on last Saturday evening and formed a Tilden and Vance Club.

Another attempt at intimidation by the Radicals is reported from Charlotte. A colored man by the name of Columbus Irvin had indignities offered him because he proposes to vote the Democratic ticket. He was set upon and his cravat, bearing the name of Tilden and Vance, was torn from his neck, placed upon a meat block and chopped to pieces. This is the third act of violence committed upon colored Democrats in Mecklenburg within the past few weeks.

Charlotte Observer: The Conservatives of Anson assembled at the Court House in Wadesboro last Saturday, when Mr. B. I. Dunlap was nominated for the House and J. M. Wall re-nominated for Sheriff. Mr. Dunlap represented Anson in the Legislature a number of times before the war, has a spotless record and is one of the most popular and influential citizens in the county, and J. M. Wall, the present sheriff, was the first man who carried the county for the Conservative party since the war.

Charlotte Democrat: Mr. M. Jarrell who has been the postmaster at High Point, N. C., for some years past, declared his intention of voting for Vance for Governor, and consequently he was turned out of office. Now, is not that big work for the successor of Washington, Adams and Jackson to be engaged in? Not willing to let a white man vote as he wants to vote! Yet, the Washington authorities talk about Democrats intimidating voters. Where are the troops to secure Mr. Jarrell in his rights?

POLITICAL NOTES.

Since the Charleston riot, Gov. Chamberlain has issued a proclamation promising that he will preserve the peace.

Philadelphia Times: The circular of Mr. Taft is simply a monstrous perversion of the law and a disgrace to the Attorney General.

The Republicans pretend to be the friends of the negro. In the South white Democratic clubs are passing such resolutions as this:

Resolved, That this club guarantees to all colored citizens who desire to join the Democratic party to redeem this State from ruin and desolation, full protection in all their rights and privileges, and insure them protection in their persons and property, even if it has to be at the expense of our lives.

The New York Herald does not believe that New York is the pivotal point on which the presidential election will turn. It insists that Indiana is the true pivot, Curiously enough it contends at the same time that if the Democrats carry Indiana it will not make their chances any better; but if the Republicans carry they may shout victory all along the line. Is not this arguing rather too much on the principle of heads I win, tails you lose?

We clip this encouraging paragraph from the National Republican: Is it not remarkable that the first tremor or doubt of Republican success in Ohio and Indiana to come to us from any politician of sufficient prominence to deserve consideration, should reach us—privately, of course—from Carl Schurz? This man has declared his Republican allegiance, and his talents have been engaged for no purpose but to spread Republican truths. If we are to have prophets of disaster, his lips should by all means remain closed.

CARL SCHURZ.

Address Delivered at Charlotte, July 29th, 1872.

Arraignment of the Republican Party by the "Great German."

[Compiled by the editor of the Raleigh News, from a report in the Columbia, (S. C.) Phenix, July 30, 1872.]

On the 29th of July, 1872, Carl Schurz delivered a speech at Charlotte, to a large Democratic mass meeting, in support of the Democratic nominee for President. The following are some of the most interesting and valuable extracts:

RESPONSIBILITY OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY FOR THE ROBBERY OF THE SOUTH.

It must be apparent to you all, that this regime of robbery which has prevailed in many Southern States, maintained itself only by the support it received from the Government—the Republican party in its national capacity. In this the Republican party showed itself the allies and abettors of the robbers who stripped you naked.

CAUSE OF THE LIBERAL MOVEMENT.

And do you now ask what was the the reason why all these men were driven from the Republican ranks? The Republican party had become forgetful of its high principles. And now I may have some office-holders within hearing of my voice, and I ask you, is there one of you who can call his soul his own? [Great applause.] Every consideration of the public good has been sacrificed for the purpose of party support.

REPUBLICAN PARTY SUPPORTED THE ROBBERS.

Fellow-citizens, when I was interrupted, (by alarm of fire,) I was just asking my Republican friends how they can expect, under the existing circumstances, the Southern people to come into the ranks of the Republican party, knowing, as they do, that it was the party that supported the robbers that were sucking out your substance?

A FLING AT THE BLOODY SHIRT DEMAGOGUES.

I never felt the necessity of the victory of the Cincinnati movement more than since I have been in North Carolina. For what do I see here? I see a great party fighting for great principles, composed of men who were but recently engaged in active war against the United States, but who, at the close of the war, readily submitted, and have ever since steadily abided by its results, and are now striking hands with their old enemies, under the banner of universal suffrage and national reconciliation; and on the other side, another party anxious to perpetuate those prejudices and hatreds engendered by the war, and regretting that those disorders had ceased, which in keeping alive the animosities alone can prolong its existence; really ready at the time to set a premium on a Ku Klux. [Laughter and applause.] Like Richard III, they would cry, in their hearts at least, 100 collectorships, a dozen foreign missions, for a single Ku Klux. [Laughter.]

ADVICE TO THE COLORED PEOPLE.

My colored friends, I belonged to a school which, before the war, was known as the anti-slavery school—the abolitionists. I have been a consistent advocate of abolitionism ever since. And I do not come here to solicit your votes, for, let me tell you, whether the colored people of the South support Greeley or not, the victory of the Cincinnati movement is certain. But, let me tell you, that I was surprised and pained to hear of colored men in this State being mobbed by their colored fellow-citizens, because they freely exercised the right of Suffrage. Why, do you know that thus you figh against that very freedom of suffrage which we fought to give you? And now let me give you a piece of advice: If you want the white people to feel kindly toward you, to respect your rights and be interested in maintaining them, avoid, above all things, one—that is, to stick together as a black party; for your rights will only be secure when you interest the whole country in your behalf, when the colored vote is divided equally on both sides.

THE SECOND DECLARATION OF INDEPENDENCE.

And now, my friends, when I entered your city, the place was pointed out to me where, one hundred years ago, your fathers first raised the banner of independence. In that place, I was told, there has been raised a liberty pole, surmounted by a United States flag—an emblem of a second declaration of independence, as needful almost as the first—a declaration of independence from partisan despotism, and based on a platform of noble principles, on which we can all unite to achieve the independence, the peace and the prosperity of our common country.

GOVERNOR TILDEN'S DEFENCE.

His Reply to the Charges of Perjury in 1862--The Income Loaned Out--Several Hundred Thousand Dollars Lost.

[N. Y. Herald]

The long-expected defence of Governor Tilden in the fraudulent income return allegations is nearly completed, and will probably be given in full for publication with a few days. Much speculation has been indulged in as to its nature, both parties regarding it as of vital importance in foreshadowing the result on election day; but the Governor has wisely kept his own counsel and speculation alone has hitherto revealed the secret. The Herald, however, is authorized to announce, on information not wholly unconnected with the Republican party, but deemed, nevertheless, entirely authentic, that the following is the line of defence advanced by Governor Tilden:

In 1861, the period of the alleged false returns, his two brothers, Henry and Moses, lately deceased, were in the chemical manufacturing business in Lebanon, but financially embarrassed to such a degree that ruin was inevitable unless prompt and ample relief came to hand.

In this crisis Governor Tilden advanced at different dates large sums, mounting to several hundred thousand dollars out of his earnings, all or nearly all of which was lost. This, he claims, left his income at the figure given in his sworn statement, and this is the defence to the charge of perjury. The document when published will, of course, be more voluminous, but it is believed that the essential points are embraced above.

The President on the Campaign.

The President, who was on the piazza listening to the music of the sad sea waves, here called me to join him, and an easy, chatty conversation ensued, of which I will only give such portions as are of a public character:

Correspondent: What do you think of the result in Vermont, Mr. President?

The President: I think it's satisfactory.

Correspondent: "Satisfactory" is not a very enthusiastic word, so that the Democrats may still take hear'.

The President (after a pause): If we carry Ohio and Indiana next month then I think the Democrats have not the ghost of a chance to carry the country in November.

Correspondent: But how if the Democrats carry Ohio and Indiana in October?

The President: Then, I take it, Tilden is as good as elected But I do not think that their carrying Ohio is at all probable.

Correspondent: How if the Republicans carry Ohio and the Democrats Indiana--what is the outlook then?

The President (after cogitating awhile): Then the chances are pretty even for both parties.—Long Branch Correspondent New York Herald.

Look Out.

[Burke Blade]

The Never Meets, or what you call 'ems, are at work. The thieves have their strikers out now, actively swearing in or pledging the ignorant men into this concern, which is only a new name for the League, so as to drive them afterwards into voting as ordered, through fear. We know the tools of the Rings are now getting men into this secret society, so they can order them afterwards how to vote.

Like Jacobins, as they are, they are not content to be at devilment themselves, but want to get their poor neighbors into trouble too.

Keep clear of them—make no promise. Be free to vote as you please when the time comes. It is against the law to join a secret political society.

The undersigned take this opportunity of thanking the people of Raleigh and vicinity for their liberal patronage during the past season, and by fair dealing we trust to merit their confidence in the future.

In order to meet the demand for the approaching Fall trade, we have placed our orders in the hands of leading manufacturers of FINE SHOES, some of whom exhibit their productions at the Great Centennial Exposition at Philadelphia, which, for style, quality and price, cannot be surpassed.

We also invite attention to our complete stock of TRUNKS, SATCHELS and VALISES. In Men's and Boys Wear, we shall introduce the celebrated Newark, (New Jersey) work. In Ladies', Misses' and Children's Shoes, Philadelphia work will be preferred. For Farmers and Mechanics, we shall keep a full supply of Kip Boots, Brogans and Plough Shoes—prison work.

Again thanking you for past favors, we hope by personal attention to the wants of the trade to merit your patronage in the future. Very respectfully,

THE ROBESONIAN.

Published every Wednesday morning in Lumberton, N. C., by W. Wallace McDiarmid, has the largest circulation of any country paper in the State. It circulates extensively in the counties of Robeson, Richmond Bladen Columbus, Cumberland, Brunswick, and in the adjoining counties of Marion, Marlboro and Darlington, in South Carolina. As a Local Newspaper it has no superior. It is one of the few country papers whose Editor and Publisher gives his whole time and attention to its columns.

In politics the ROBESONIAN will strive to promote the principles of the Democratic-Conservative party, and is uncompromisingly in favor of White Supremacy. Its local columns will always teem with the latest and best news, written in a brief, intelligent and business-like manner. Its editorials will be short and lucid and upon subjects which directly concern our people. As an advertising medium it is much sought after and has a patronage second to no other country paper. Established in 1870, it has ever since been increasing in influence and popularity until it has reached and occupied the very front rank of North Carolina journalism.

RATES—CASH IN ADVANCE—One year, $2 50; Six months, $1.25; Three months, 75 cents. Send a three-cent stamp for specimen copy. Advertising furnished on application. Also our campaign rates which are very low.

THE ROCKY MOUNT MAIL

Published every Friday at Rocky Mount N. C. Is a first-rate advertising medium, especially for those soliciting patronage from the section in which it is published. It has a fine local and general circulation, and is the only paper published in Nash county. Terms moderate, and can be found on first page.

NOON DISPATCHES.

FOREIGN.

The Progress of the Peace Negotiations--More Turkish Atrocities--Spanish Persecutions of Protestants, &c.,

LONDON, Sept. 15.—A Vienna dispatch to the Times reports that the great council to which the Sultan referred the rejected propositions, has reaffirmed them. A compromise is probable.

The British officers at the Turkish headquarters in Servia report great devastation by the Turks, but no outrages on women or multilation of wounded are known. On receiving this intelligence, the British minister at Constantinople remonstrated against the devastation, whereupon the Turkish government issued stringent orders to prevent it.

The Standard's Berlin despatch says Russia is endeavoring to induce the Bulgarians to emigrate to Crimea.

A Reuter dispatch from Berlin says the intolerant measures of the Spanish government against the Protestants, are stated to have given rise to frequent exchange of notes between the British and German governments. It is understood that they will address remonstrances to Spain on the subject, and call upon her to act in conformity with her engagements.

A Reuter dispatch from Constantinople says it is stated there that although the reply of the Porte to the representatives of the powers will formulate conditions of peace, it will leave the conduct of the negotiations in the hands of the powers.

THE INDIANS.

"Friendlies" Gone to the Hostiles.

BISMARCK, Sept. 15.—The count of Indians at Standing Rock shows 4,000. Rations have been issued for 7,000.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 15.—Advices from Red Cloud Agency say there is no doubt but that several thousand of young men have gone to the hostiles, as a recent count at this agency shows but 4,901 men, women and children present, where there should be 13,000, and it is quite probable that an investigation at Spotted Tail Agency will show a corresponding deficiency.

SAVANNAH.

Great Suffering There--Nashville and Charleston Send Aid.

NASHVILLE, TENN., Sept. 15.—A meeting was held to-day to raise money for Savannah.

CHARLESTON, Sept. 15.—Private accounts received here of the suffering in Savannah are very distressing. A public meeting was held to-day and subscriptions began. Eighteen hundred dollars have already been forwarded, and the subscriptions will be continued to-morrow. Charleston continues perfectly healthy.

NIGHT DISPATCHES.

INDIAN WAR.

Campaign Against the Sioux Discontinued--Breaking up of Gen. Terry's Command--Movements of Troops.

CHICAGO, Sept. 15.—A Times special correspondent with Gen. Terry telegraphs from Fort Buford at the mouth of Yellowstone on the 8th via Bismarck, on the 14th inst., that the final breaking up of Gen. Terry's command, occurred yesterday morning. All the troops are now en route home with the exception of two regiments of infantry which will winter at the mouth of Tongue River. The Montana troops numbering 250 infantry and 120 horses, and including seventy infantry and the second cavalry under Gen. Gibbon, left for Fort Ellis with a wagon train and supplies for eighty days. They will follow the old Stanley trail. The route is teeming with hostile Indians and is 420 miles long. They may encounter a large war party in the Big Horn country. They have been in the field since March, and are poorly clad for the cold weather and fierce storms which sweep over the prairies at this season. The 22nd Infantry, who have been left at the mouth of Glen Dive Creek, commenced the construction of a stockade. They will remain till November 1st, or later. The 7th Cavalry have left for Fort Buford, and will move along the north bank of the Yellowstone. After arriving here they will go to Fort Lincoln to winter. The 16th Infantry will remain here.

Gen. Terry and staff arrived here this morning. They will remain a few days and then go to St. Paul via Bismarck. By the 15th all the troops will have been withdrawn from the northern country, except the 22nd Infantry and 5th Cavalry, containing four hundred men.

A dispatch just received from Gen. Sheridan countermands the order to winter a regiment of cavalry on the Yellowstone, which renders a winter campaign impossible, and indefinitely postpones the subjugation of the Sioux.

THE SAVANNAH SUFFERERS.

The Negroes Dependent Upon White Charity --- Contributions of Other Cities.

SAVANNAH, Sept. 15.—Total interments, 31; yellow fever interments, 27. Over one-half of the colored population are depending upon the charity of the whites, and the amount of destitution is increasing. There were seventeen deaths among c lored people in two days.

AUGUSTA, Sept. 15.—The citizens of Augusta contributed $1,200 to-day for the Savannah sufferers. Additional subscriptions will be given to-morrow. The City Council contributes $50 per day during the prevalence of the epidemic.

ATLANTA, GA., Sept. 15.—Atlanta contributes $2,000 for the Savannah sufferers.

CHARLESTON, Sept. 15.—The Charleston contributions for Savannah exceed $3,000, besides $1 000 contributed by the city government.

WASHINGTON.

Substitution of Bonds--Tweed's Arrest Confirmed.

WASHINGTON, Sept 15.—Nine hundred thousand four and a half per cent. bonds were substituted, to-day, for other bonds securing National Bank notes.

The Alert is ordered to Shanghai.

Hon. Caleb Cushing, Minister to Spain, confirms, to a Herald correspondent, the statements regarding Tweed's arrest in Spain.

Nominations of Colored Congressmen.

SELMA, ALA., Sept. 15.—James T. Rapier, formerly colored Congressman, was to-day nominated by the Congressional Convention of the Fourth District. Some of the delegations bolted and nominated Jerre Harralson, colored, the present member of Congress.

Injunction Against President Grant.

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—Judge Westbrook to-day granted an injunction restraining President Grant and the Secretary of State from issuing a mandate for the surrender of Leopold Nettle, demanded in extradition by Austrian authority, on the charge of forgery.

MISCELLANEOUS TELEGRAMS.

SALT LAKE, Sept. 15.—Two masked men, yesterday, gagged Wells Fargos, a messenger on a railroad train, and robbed the safe of $15,000.

CHARLESTON, Sept. 15.—1 O'CLOCK A. M.—Chamberlain, 88; Dunn, 31; Corbin, 2; Elliott, 1, on first ballot.

BOSTON, Sept. 15.—A detective, yesterday, arrested at Watertown, Amos Cutter, a prominent real estate agent and broker, on the charge of embezzling $60,000, with which he had been entrusted in order to negotiate a loan.

SPRINGFIELD, MASS., Sept. 15.—Watson Chamberlain's paper mill, at Landville, burned; loss, $50,000.

ATLANTA, Sept. 15.—All the old members of Congress, from Georgia, re-nominated.

NORTH CAROLINA.

Salisbury is healthy.

The smoke house on the premises of Rev. C. Plyler, of Salisbury, was burned last Friday morning.

The Blue Ridge Blade says the past was a remarkable summer on account of the unusual heat and dryness.

A fight took place at Nunn's Store, in Stokes county, on last Monday, which resulted in the death of a negro man at the hands of John George.

The Statesville Landmark pays a warm tribute to the late John A. Stevenson, the young lawyer of that place who died last week at Taylorsville.

A young man in Statesville whose name is suppressed, attempted to commit suicide a few days ago by taking laudanum, but was detected in time to save his life.

Mr. Robert Marrable, who has for some time been running on the Petersburg and Weldon Railroad between Weldon and Petersburg, recently resigned his position on this road.

The Superintendent of the Union Factories in Randolph county purchased a couple weeks ago in Philadelphia $20 000 worth of machinery which will be added to the machinery now in operation.

The Durham Tobacco Plant says that through the influence of Gen. Maj. W. Ransom and Hon. Thomas S. Ashe, Thomas Ruffin Gwynn, of Hillsboro, has received an appointment to Annapolis. Young Gwynn is a grandson of Judge Thomas Ruffin.

Last Sunday evening a drunken man invaded the private premises of a gentleman in Wilmington. He had to be put out by force, the gentleman being assisted by a neighbor and during the struggle, the wretch struck the gentleman whose premises he had entered, a blow in the face, and also drew a knife. He now belongs to the chain gang. So says the Journal.
